ST. GEORGE

St. George, legendary knight and martyr. Martyred probably under Diocletian, according to legend he was a Christian knight who killed a dragon that had been terrorizing the town of Sylene, Libya. As an exemplary knight he was very popular in the Middle Ages, especially among the Crusaders, and was included in the Golden Legend. He is the patron saint of England and of soldiers. His feast day is April 23.

OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL

SCAPULAR

In the year 1251, in the town of Aylesford in England, Our Lady appeared to St. Simon Stock, a Carmelite. She handed him a brown woolen scapular and said, "This shall be a privilege for you and all Carmelites, that anyone dying in this habit shall not suffer eternal fire." In time, the Church extended this magnificent privilege to all the laity who are willing to be invested in the Brown Scapular of the Carmelites and who perpetually wear it.

True devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary consists in three things: VENERATION, CONFIDENCE and LOVE. By simply wearing the Scapular, we can tell her every moment of the day that we venerate her, love her and trust in her protection.

There are six, blessed, Brown Scapulars, in the vestibule of St. John the Baptist Church and are free for the taking
