ST. ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE

1769-1852, St. Rose was a French missionary and educator. She entered the Visitation order in 1788, but religious persecution spawned by the French Revolution forced the order into exile. After the Concordat of 1801, she joined the Congregation of the Religious of the Sacred Heart (called in the 1990s the Society of the Sacred Heart). As a missionary to the United States, she established at St. Charles, Missouri, the first convent of the Religious of the Sacred Heart in America and founded many schools and orphanages. She labored among the Potawatomi tribe at Sugar Creek, Kansas; they called her "Woman Who Prays Always." Duchesne, known for her holiness and sacrificial life, was canonized in 1988. Her feast day is November 18.

PARISH COFFEE HOURS

St. Peter's will host a coffee hour in the rectory following the 9:30 Mass on Sunday, November 21st. We look forward to seeing you there.

St. John's. - Sunday, November 21st, there will be a coffee hour after the 11:15 am Mass. Bakers are needed. Your baked goods can be dropped off in the kitchen on Saturday evening or before Mass on Sunday morning. Please join us in Father Willis Hall, all are welcome.

DIOCESAN COLLECTION

Next weekend our special collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. More than thirty-eight million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring permanent and positive change to their communities. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS by Susan Vogt

"Heaven and earth will pass away...But of that day or hour, no one knows." (Mark 13:31-32) Although this scripture probably refers to the end of the world, in marriage the day one of you dies is the end of your earthly marriage. It's hard to think about this, but it will happen. Dare to take a moment this week to write a sentence to your beloved about how you will feel upon their death.
