ST. DOMINIC

Domingo Guzman was born in Spain in 1170. His life and work parallels that of St. Francis of Assisi. In his first years as a priest, he confronted the spread of Catharism, a heresy that presented Jesus as only a man and not also God. St. Dominic's probing revealed that this heresy was not so much a rejection of the Catholic faith as the result of regretful ignorance. He was ignited with the need to bear witness to the truth of the Catholic faith. He developed a model for a new type of ministry based on the practices of the first apostles who, as missionaries and mendicants, traveled from community to community preaching the Good News and personifying the gospel teachings of faith, hope and charity. Thus, St. Dominic developed the Order of Preachers or Dominicans, a new religious order to serve the needs of the world and proclaim the Gospel wherever they went. His feast is August 8.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The idea of working in this world "as a leaven" is not a new concept for the Knights. We know that we are called to be witnesses to Christ in our families, in our jobs and in our service to society. We know God's plan and will for us through an informed conscience, and cultivate such a conscience by being faithful to the Church's teachings. This requires solidarity with our bishops and priests, something we have been committed to since our founding by Venerable Michael McGivney. (Former Supreme Knight Carl Anderson) 607-267-8336
