KNOWING YOUR FAITH

Where especially do we encounter Christ in His saving mysteries?

It is in the Mass that we encounter Christ together in His saving mysteries and that we receive more strength, grace, and peace.

The more we can arouse our love for Christ and His Church, and the more wholeheartedly we can participate in the Mass, all the more are we likely to receive abundant blessings and graces from our dear Lord. Knowing Your Faith, Rev. Raymond B. Fullham, S.J.

ST. ANDREW

St. Andrew, (one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus and the brother of St. Peter. He is the patron saint of Scotland and of Russia. In the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke), Peter and Andrew—whose Greek name means “manly”—were called from their fishing by Jesus to follow him, promising that he would make them “fishers of men.” With Saints Peter, James, and John, Andrew asked Jesus on the Mount of Olives for signs of the earth's end, which inspired the eschatological discourse in Mark 13. In The Gospel According to John, Andrew is the first Apostle named, and he was a disciple of St. John the Baptist before Jesus' call. Early Byzantine tradition (dependent on John 1:40) calls Andrew protokletos, “first called.” Early church legends recount his missionary activity in the area about the Black Sea. Apocryphal writings centered on him include the Acts of Andrew, Acts of Andrew and Matthias, and Acts of Peter and Andrew. A 4th-century account reports his death by crucifixion, and late medieval accretions describe the cross as X-shaped. He is iconographically represented with an X-shaped cross (like that depicted on the Scottish flag). His feast day is November 30th.
