Humble Before Christ's Feet

We can have virtue by keeping Jesus the Lamb before our mind's eye, for in Him we find true deep humility, great meekness, and patience. And although He is God's Son, He neither comes nor lives as a king because He is not proud or self-centered. He comes, in fact, as a lowly servant. He is not self-seeking but concerned only about giving honor and glory to the Father, and restoring to us life we had lost through sin. And He does this for love alone, to fulfill the Father's will for us.
